Griffin Capital Announces the Addition of Matthew Couri, CFA Senior Vice President of Wealth Solutions, to its Wealth Solutions Team

El Segundo, Calif. (November 22, 2022) – Griffin Capital Company, a leading alternative investment manager based in El Segundo, California, has hired Matthew Couri, CFA, to serve as a Senior Vice President of Wealth Solutions on Griffin Capital’s Wealth Solutions Team.

Prior to joining Griffin Capital, Couri served as a key member of the Distribution Team at FS Investments where he spent 10 years as Regional Director. During Couri’s tenure at FS Investments, he was a member of the distribution leadership team and a top performer responsible for expanding relationships and raising capital across all intermediary channels for the firm.

At Griffin, Couri will focus his efforts on managing the firm’s Midwest Territory where he will support and expand the firm’s relationships across all channels. “We are thrilled to welcome Matt to Griffin Capital. Our Wealth Solutions Team is integral in supporting the financial intermediaries we serve. Matt Couri is a perennial top performer because of his deep understanding of the capital markets and ability to provide value to his clients. Matt will be an asset to our clients and investors, and we are excited to be able to give him the opportunity to utilize his skill sets to benefit our partners and augment those relationships,” commented Nick Rosenthal, Managing Director of Wealth Solutions at Griffin Capital Company. “As a market leader in the strategies we offer, now exclusively focused on our multifamily Private Markets strategies, we are excited to deepen our bench of talented professionals to provide a differentiated value proposition to our partners. Matt is indicative of the caliber of professionals we seek to attract to represent the firm.”
